Syrinx Concerts Toronto 2014-15 Season Donation Opportunities

About Syrinx

Since 2005 Syrinx Concerts Toronto has presented chamber music repertoire in an intimate salon setting, as it was intended to be heard. The five public concerts programmed cater to music lovers in Toronto and the wider GTA. The unique and intimate Syrinx concert experience programmed by artistic director Dorothy Sandler-Glick offers exposure to rising stars, as well as established concert performers and principal players from leading orchestras, interpreting Canadian chamber music compositions. Syrinx Concert Toronto programmes combines familiar classic chamber music compositions along with innovative contemporary pieces including music by Canadian composers.

Syrinx Concerts Toronto continues to build a community of chamber music players, composers and listeners. Syrinx also discovers and introduces international artists from various countries of the world to a Toronto audience. At the end of each concert we invite the audience to a post-concert reception carrying on the conversation between the audience and musicians after the performance. The 2014-15 concert series "Celebrates the Women in Classical Music" Included in this year's series will be Ukrainian pianist Sofya Gulyak, winner of the Leeds Competition and Anastasia Rizikov, a young charismatic pianist who is well on her way towards an international career.

Audience

Many of Syrinx patrons attend multiple concerts, which creates deeper, more lasting impressions for our sponsors. Syrinx concert goers are mainly from the GTA, but we do have patrons who come from further afield such as Hamilton, York Region, Kitchener-Waterloo and Barrie. The audience demographic is well educated with higher than average incomes with 45% senior, 10% student and 45% working adults.

Why Donate

Ticket sales to all performances contribute less than 40 per cent of the cost of running the Syrinx Concerts Toronto series. A grant from the Toronto Arts Council contributes 15 per cent the remaining is raised by individual donations and corporate sponsorship. Without patrons Syrinx Concerts Toronto would simply not be able to sustain the quality of its activities.

There are few performance opportunities for classical musicians in the Toronto area. Moreover, there are very few opportunities to present works by Canadian composers. Syrinx Concerts serves the local community by providing a venue for the performance of Canadian works by Canadian artists. It is unique in this respect. Your generosity will help Syrinx Concerts to serve in this role and otherwise achieve its mandate of exposing classical music to people of ages and stages to the extraordinary personal benefits that come from involvement in music and the arts with the presentation of high quality concerts featuring local and professional musicians and encouraging artistic excellence. Your generosity will help maintain and extend a diverse range of musical, educational and community initiatives

When you donate to Syrinx Concerts Toronto, you not only support the arts in your community but you associate with a first-class concert series, gaining exposure to a sophisticated and unique audience.

Syrinx Concerts Toronto audiences have enjoyed performances from an eclectic array of Canadian artists featuring the work Canadian composers; Srul Irving Glick, Walter Buczynski, Norbert Palej, Oskar Morawetz, Robert Fleming, Steven Gellman and Jean Coulthard.
